Forecast For Tayside, Central & Fife
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 19 May 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Rather cloudy with some showers but some sunshine in west.

Today:
Mainly cloudy across Angus and Fife with some patchy rain or showers. Brighter in west with some sunny intervals but here too a few showers will break out becoming locally heavy. Light winds. Maximum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tonight:
Still a few cloud breaks in the west but most areas will be cloudy with some hill fog and perhaps a little light rain. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Some brighter spells developing for a time in the morning before cloud thickens up to bring outbreaks of rain from late morning or early afternoon. Freshening easterly winds, Cool. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Cloudy with further rain on Friday, perhaps heavy at times in the east, brightening in west. Sunny spells and scattered light showers over the weekend. Cool.

(C) Crown Copyright 2021. Published by the Met Office.